TALK OF THE TOWN

See the remnant counter at Fitts'. Remnant sale Saturday at Abbott's. Annual sale held at Vaughan's. Mrs. Charles Arnholm of St. Albans is visiting relatives here for a few days. Have you visited the new Royal Billiard Parlor? Piano, safe and furniture moving. F. G. Rogers. Tell, 190, Barre. Mrs. Joseph Gray left this morning for a week-end visit with relatives in Burlington and St. Albans. Mrs. William Thom has gone to Troy, N. Y., where she expects to make a two weeks' visit with relatives. Edward Hurlbut returned last night to Philadelphia, after spending a week in the Barre granite belt on business. William Flynn of Rutland arrived in the city last night and will make a few days' visit with friends and relatives. Clarence Bisbee of Watsfield arrived yesterday and is making a several days' visit with friends and relatives in the city. Mrs. John S. Murley and daughter, Miss Mary G. Murray, of Summer street are passing a week with relatives in Jonestown and Burlington. Frank Gredler, a 1914 graduate at Spaulding high school, arrived last night from Middlebury, where he is employed, and will make a few days' visit in this city. Harold Whalen and Arthur Hogan of Burlington returned to their homes this morning, after enjoying a short visit here with friends. Their trip was made by auto. Gerald Knapp and Henry Denning, who have been making a week's visit at Morrisville and Stowe, returned to their homes in this city last night. The trip was made by motor. H. M. Farnham, the horse man, will hold his next (40th) big combination auction sale of horses and other property at his stables in Montpelier, at 96 Northfield street, on Friday, Aug. 20, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon; carload of fresh horses, just in from the West, and a good lot of commission property. C. F. Smith, auctioneer.—Adv.

Louis Frattini of Foss street, who was taken to the City hospital several days ago suffering with a bad scalp wound which he received while wrestling with a neighbor, was able to resume his duties as a clerk in the office of the Consolidated Lighting Co. this morning. The wound is still swathed in bandages, although the young man is making a good recovery. Dr. J. E. McSweeney and Mrs. McSweeney and Miss Beatrice Bray of Hartford, Conn., who have been making a week's visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Tierney on South Main street, left yesterday for Burlington, where they will make a few days' visit with relatives and friends before returning home.

Mrs. Allen Caldwell and daughter, Susan, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Miles of South Main street for a week, returned yesterday to their home in Danville. They were accompanied by Mrs. Caldwell's mother, Mrs. T. E. Miles, who will make a visit of two weeks in Danville and vicinity.

Mrs. Anthony Gasparello and two daughters of Merchant street left the city yesterday for Boston, where they are to pay a farewell visit to Mrs. Gasparello's mother, her brother and sister, who are leaving within a few days for their former home in Italy. Mrs. Gasparello's brother, after a residence of several years in Boston, has been called to the Italian colors and will enroll in the army immediately upon his arrival in the homeland.

A 500 party was held last evening at the home of Miss Cora Batchelder on Hill street, ten of her lady friends being present. In winning the most points during the evening Miss Hazel Lyon carried away the first prize. Miss Em-Slayton was the one most unsuccessful and was awarded the prize for the lowest percentage. Dainty refreshments of ice cream, cake and wafers were served. Before the party came to a close, songs and other music were enjoyed for some time.

From Barre to-day the advance guard of a sizeable Pythian delegation that is to be in the Railroad city next week went to St. Albans. Among those who expect to be at the encampment of the Uniform Rank over the week-end are C. M. Willey, Paul D. Leavitt, Charles C. Kenyon and Frank Nichols. Vincenia Lodge, No. 10, is to send a large delegation to the state convention, but the greater number of local Pythians are deferring their visit to St. Albans until the annual mid-summer ceremonial of Susannah temple, No. 140, D. O. K. K., which is to be held Tuesday evening. Some of the temple furnishings were shipped to the convention to-day, but the templars themselves will not leave the city until Tuesday morning. Indications point to the reception of a large number of candidates when the temple convenes.

Notice! The treasurer of the Barre Golf club would be glad to receive all outstanding dues by Wednesday, Aug. 18. Same may be left for convenience of members at the G. M. Marston cigar store. Per order executive committee.

Clearance sale now at Vaughan's. Last call on summer dresses at the Vaughan Store. Five reels, including Charlie Chaplin, Sunday evening at Inter-city park.—Adv. Home-made baked beans, brown bread, custard and lemon pies at Tassie Bros'. South Main street market Saturday. There are a few more of those children's tennis oxfords, sizes 5 to 7, at the price-smashing sale of the People's Shoe Store, for 40c. Men's tennis oxfords for 60c.

Mrs. Dwight Foster has leased the store in the Lane block, corner of North Main and Seminary streets, recently vacated by the Lang Jewelry Co., and will open an art store.

Dr. and Mrs. F. T. Calef and Bradford Calef, who motored to Barre yesterday from their home in East Providence, R. I., are passing several days in Washington as guests in the home of Ira C. Calef.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Preston of Marblehead, Mass., who have been staying at Mrs. W. R. Merrill's in Northfield, were visitors in Barre to-day. Mr. Preston renewing acquaintance with several members of the printing trade. He learned his trade in the office of the Montpelier Argus and Patriot.

Among the visitors in the city yesterday were: Prof. J. W. Votey of the University of Vermont, Burlington; Dr. H. A. Ladd of Burlington, a member of the state board of health; Mrs. F. F. Smith of Chelsea, Mass.; Mrs. H. E. Campbell of Lyndonville, Mass.; and Mrs. F. E. Benjamin of Malden, Mass. All were registered at Hotel Barre.

At the request of the respondent's counsel, the case of state vs. Victor Savoie of Montpelier, charged with driving an auto in a careless and negligent manner, which was returnable before Magistrate H. W. Scott in city court this morning, has been continued to Aug. 30. Counsel for Savoie asked an extension of time in which to locate witnesses and intimated that a jury trial will be requested. The case grew out of a team auto collision on North Main street Aug. 1.

Motor visitors in Barre yesterday and to-day included Mrs. H. L. Hiller and her son, Hugh Hiller, of New York City, who arrived by motorcycle with side-car at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Hiller and her son are spending their two months' vacation touring New England in the motorcycle. Thus far they have greatly enjoyed their trip through Vermont and recommend the motorcycle method as a comfortable and leisurely means of seeing the scenery in the Green Mountain state.

Motor arrivals at Hotel Barre yesterday included the following: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. A. Loftquist, Chicago; the Misses Brophy and party of two, Boston; Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Eckhardt, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morchinski and chauffeur, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Graham, Boston; Mrs. H. L. Hiller and son, Hugh Hiller, New York; E. D. Barry, Walter E. Billings, Boston; Fred S. Ordway and Robert Sargent, Milford, N. H.; Dr. and Mrs. F. T. Eaton, Randolph; Mr. and Mrs. George T. Graves, Misses Hilda and Pauline Graves, Winoski.

James B. Darling of 8 Laurel street, who has been employed as teamster by A. S. Martin for the past 12½ years, has resigned his duties and is moving his household goods to South Ryegate, where the family will reside. The change is to be made for the benefit of Mrs. Darling, who has been in declining health for some time. In the long time he has been in Mr. Martin's employ, Mr. Darling's "days off" have not aggregated more than two months, which is considered an unusual record in view of the fact that his duties were of a character that exposed him to all kinds of weather. In the same 12½ years, Mr. Darling has delivered around 33,000 cords of wood for Mr. Martin.
